AZTEC, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1900.

A grand dance will be given in the Auditorium on the eight of the courth. for which pocuation splendid music has NUMBER 21.

DOORS AND SASH

Every detail has been completed for the celebration of the Fourth at Axtec. the ball tossers have been knocking the atomic of farm lands in San Juan county joined by friends from Utah, have been knocking the atomic of farm lands in San Juan county joined by friends from Utah, have been grooming and szercising their forth its resolution and szercising their same in the same statement of the sphere. Heer-footed horses; the bicyclers have been nightly drilling; the anvil chorus have kept their powder dry ready to shoot the whiskers off old Sci as soon as he peops over the hills, and young America has laid abed dreaming of the Minbolical things he will do on the approaching day. Yes, indeed, we are prepared to make the eagle scream as he never screamed in this valley before, even if we have to pull his tail feathers.

Antec will be full of patriotism and pretty girls and red lemonade and stately matrons and ice cream and young men carrying cigars and old men carrying Dutch courage.

They're coming from La Plata, Farmington, Flora Vista, Bloomfield, Largo. Pine River, Cedar Hill, Florida, Durango and all the hamlets; they're coming in buggles, wagons and carts, on horseback, on wheels and on foot, any way to get here and enjoy the sports, and they will receive a royal welcome.
